KOTA KINABALU, Oct 26 (Bernama) -- The BIGSABAH Sale 2024, taking place at the Sabah International Convention Centre (SICC) from yesterday until tomorrow, serves as a platform to introduce GM Klang as Malaysia's largest wholesale centre.

GM Klang Brand Communications executive Nurhani Yasmee Mohd Zainan explained that this was because many people, particularly from Sabah, Sarawak, and neighbouring countries, were still unaware that GM Klang was the largest wholesale centre in Malaysia.

"At this event, GM Klang has set up 10 booths, featuring eight wholesalers that offer a wide range of products, such as cooking utensils, bags, accessories, and food.

“Exhibitors such as Elena Fashion, iGOZO, PQ Bagss, Boston Concept Store, A to Z Fashion Wholesale, Omiso Global, Kiriman Kampung, and Pusat Borong Terlajak Murah provide a diverse selection of goods at unbeatable prices,” she told Bernama here today.

“We hope that this time the wholesalers will be able to clear their stock and find potential buyers in Sabah who could become their business partners, including traders and agents,” she said.

The event features 315 booths, including 30 from Brunei, 10 from Thailand, four from Indonesia, two from the Philippines, and 10 from GM Klang, a Malaysian one-stop wholesale city renowned for its diverse range of products for the international market.

When asked about the possibility of opening a GM Klang branch in Sabah, Nurhani Yasmeen stated that there had been no proposals thus far, but she believed that it was not impossible.

“Perhaps one day, if there is demand, we may open GM Sabah as well,” she said.
